MEDICINAL.

THE RACE IS WON
over to good health and rendered impervious to disease when the blood is pure and the liver active. For the liver is the sentinel which permits or forbids the germs of disease to enter the circulation of the blood.

You ought to be germ-proof against Grip, Malaria, or Consumption; you will be— if you take Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery.

When your flesh is reduced below a healthy standard, when you are troubled with pimples, boils, or if you have dizzy, weak and nervous spells—it is best to head the warning. Build up your strength, purify the blood, and set all the organs of the body into motion by taking the "Discovery." It is guaranteed to benefit or cure all diseases resulting from impure blood or inactive liver, or the money paid is refunded.

There is no cure of Catarrh so hopeless that Dr. Pierce's Catarrh Remedy cannot cure. The proprietors of this medicine will pay you a reasonable sum for any incurable case.

JAPANESE PILE CURE
A new and complete treatment, consisting of a series of operations, by which the piles are removed, and the blood is purified. It is a permanent cure, and often cures the most obstinate cases. No guarantee given to cure any case. You only pay for what you get. No money paid for any incurable case.

CONSTIPATION CURED. Piles Prevented. Dr. Pierce's Catarrh Remedy and Japanese Pile Cure. Each bottle 50 cents. 20 boxes for $9.00. Sent by mail, to any address, 25 Cents per box. Guaranteed only by Dr. J. C. Milburn.

DENTISTRY.

CRYOBEAST
A good blacksmith would make a poor dentist, and a man may be a very good dentist in certain kinds of work and poor in others. It is not possible for him to be equally expert in all branches of so complex an art; for there is as much difference between operative and mechanical dentistry as there is between extracting a tooth and showing a horse.

Every member of our association does what he can do best and attempts nothing else. We have a man for each branch, and that is the great advantage of an association over the ordinary mode of practice.

Extracting, 25 cents; with gas or zinc, 50 cents; cleaning, 75 cents. Silver filling, 75 cents. Gold according to size.

VERY BEST TEETH, $8.00.

HE SLEW THIRTY THOUSAND.—A good story of General John C. Breckinridge is said to have been told by himself, with evident relish, not long before his death. In talking to some friends about the many kindnesses which had been shown him by his people and the pleasant things which were said to him, he remarked that he valued as highly as any compliment he had ever received one which an old Kentucky farmer paid him during the war, which had come to his ears only a short time ago.

It was the custom in war times, as it has always been since, for the country people to come into the county town on Saturday afternoon to exchange news gathered during the week.

At one of these gatherings in a store in Richmond, Ky., just after the battle of Chickamauga, one of the men said he had heard some grand news. Upon being pressed to tell it, he said gravely: "I did hear that that has been a most powerful fight down in Tennessee, and they say that for a long time it went mighty agin our folks, but that then Mr. Breckinridge come forrad and asked the privilege of the field for just fifteen minutes, and they do say that he slew 30,000!"

The statement was received with due respect by the assembled company, although it appeared to occasion a slight ripple of surprise, much to the narrator's satisfaction. —Youth's Companion.

THE HORSE THAT LIVES IN THE WHITE HOUSE.—A horse has his home in the White House. This is a literal fact which visitors never discover, and few Washington people know. The horse which shares the Executive Mansion with the President isn't a thoroughbred. He has neither pedigree nor record. He is just a plain, everyday horse, with a white star in his forehead, a faithful companion to Edgar R. Beckley.

And who is Edgar R. Beckley? The man who for 25 years has carried to and from the White House all of the interesting and valuable mail received and sent, and who has never been found remiss in his duty. There are men who seem bound to be monuments of fidelity to routine trusts. Beckley is one of them. Rain or shine, in all seasons, he makes the hourly trips between the White House and the city post office. He is the White House mail carrier, and the horse that has his home in the White House carries Beckley.

The pair of the mansion set apart for the horse is one corner of the conservatory. A thin partition is all that separates the roomy stall from the orchids. There is just room enough for the stall and a temporary supply of feed, and the horse eats and sleeps under the same roof with the President of the United States. —St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

ONE ON KERNELL.—In St. Paul the other evening John Kernell, the Irish comedian, was accosted by a grimy looking gentleman who asked for 25 cents.

"You have a wife and four children I suppose," said Kernell.

"No, sir; and I don't want a drink. I'm hungry, but that's not what makes me beg. I want to raise money enough to go and see John Kernell in the Husters to-night. I'd go without a dinner any day to see that fellow on the stage."

"Oh, then, I can fix you," said the comedian delightedly, and he gave him a pass. Afterward happening to enter a barroom he saw there his seedy admirer filling a glass to the brim with whiskey.

"I wonder where that tramp got his money?" said Kernell to the bartender.

"He just now sold a theatre pass for 50 cents," was the reply. —N. Y. Press.

A GHOST COMES TO GRIEF.—The superstitious of the Sixth ward, in Allentown, Pa., were recently in a fever of excitement over a ghost which has been stalking about the streets of that district. Halloween celebrators were a most scared out of their wits, and the spook was given a wide berth, until a spunky young chap decided to investigate. He threw a stone at the phantom's head and immediately there was the shriek of a feminine voice. The "ghost" proved to be a young woman named O'Donnell, who attired herself in a sheet for the purpose of having Halloween sport. The woman was badly cut on the forehead by the stone.
